

Gift Card Phishing

Free Gifts Aren't Free They Cost Your Data!

Cybercriminals use "free gift" offers to trick you into sharing personal details like passwords, banking info, or contact data. These fake deals can lead to identity theft, fraud, or account compromise.

- Verify the source before clicking links.
- Never share sensitive information.
- Avoid deals that seem too good to be true.

Your data is priceless - don't give it away for fake freebies!
