Fake CAPTCHA = Real Scam

Cyber criminals are using fake "I'm not a robot" tests to trick you into copying and running malicious code.

Verify You Are Human
Ctrl + V
I'm not a robot

What Happens

- You visit a fake website, it shows a fake "I'm not a robot" CAPTCHA.
- After You click, the site secretly copies a malicious command to your clipboard.
- It then asks you to paste and run that command-which installs malware that steals your personal and financial information.

⚠ Stay Safe

- Don't Follow Blindly: Avoid following instructions from random or unfamiliar websites without verifying their legitimacy.

- Add Browser Protection: Install browser extensions that help detect and block scam domains.

- Stay Updated: Keep your browser and operating system up to date – security patches help block fake pages.
